Seniors of 1960:

As the end of your high school under-graduate life approaches, you undoubtedly face its termination with mixed emotions. Some of you will take a long, hard look at your years at the Academy, and others will merely glance back.

It is in the coming years that you will begin to place concrete values on your learnings at the Academy. We have made every effort to provide you with the various educational tools to prepare you for your many diverse undertakings. We hope that when you make your critical appraisal of your achievement at the Academy you will find it has been a worthwhile experience.

As you go forth to broader horizons, be assured that we appreciate the many fine things that you have left with us. We are confident that you have taken something extraordinary in the way of scholastic achievement and elements of character into the larger world.
